

Seguí Elias

Born in Barcelona in 1945.

Major figure in the first generation of professional designers in Spain.

In 1970 he founded a studio of industrial and interior design, which opened the doors to collaborations with various architectural and urban planning studios.

He continues to teach in a number of design schools in Barcelona, and writes articles for various architecture and design journals.

As for politics, he is Barcelona's Environmental Commissioner.

The central theme of his design and thought is the domestic object.

Libya