

Bernasconi Alessandra

Graduated in Architecture at Politecnico di Milano Bovisa in 2005, she cooperates with the same University in didactic activities. On 2006-2008 collaborates with Architects' Association of Como both in graphic projects development of art exhibitions and in Association's new website production.

Delving into environmental projec's subjects, gets a major in energy and environmental expert. In 2008 -along with a team of architects, lawyers and commercial experts- sets up "StartupinItaly.com" a consulting network on private and public companies's matters. In 2010 is on a course "Food Experience Design" - design for innovation of pizza-shops industry's spaces, in particular facing innovation and quality topics. From 2005 cooperates with Architectural Firm Studio B&L and Sertin S.r.l. . In the same year becomes projectual area manager of the company. Her architect activity ranges over building-design, interior-design, industrial and graphic-design and town planning.