

Lo Cascio Francesca

Francesca Lo Cascio was born in Milan, Italy. Graduated from the Polytechnics of Milan and Turin in industrial, furniture and eco-sustainable product design, she specialised in temporary interiors and exhibitions. Following her passion and curiosity for different cultures, she attended a master in Oriental markets and public relations that brings her to live and work in Spain, Thailand, China, Japan and France, where she spent last three years of creations. Francesca currently runs his own studio, Flocdesign.com, between Milan and Paris working with major international companies as furniture, interiors and exhibition designer.